Update on RBP HY 2013: Driving a more sustainable business

Increased competitive pressure

Generics will lead to some film loss in highly price sensitive payors

Further competitor entry will add to price pressure eg. Orexo & additional generics

Sustained Suboxone film share

69% market volume share at end June

Share sustained since generic entry

Total MG Market Share Trend

TRx MG Share by week 2012 - 2013

Better value for healthcare payors

Existing benefits

Film offers better value than tablets

Longer treatment adherence improves outcomes

Fewer unintended exposures better

Patients and physicians preferring to stay with film

New clinical data

Latest data shows lower diversion rates of film vs tablet

Suboxone tablets were twelve times as likely to be diverted and twice as likely to be abused than film

On-going data collection to strengthen clinical differentiation

Update on RBP HY 2013:

Driving a more sustainable business

Film IP strengthened with new patent

As expected, competitor film ANDA filed

No near term impact.

Automatic 30 month film exclusivity upon filing of infringement lawsuit

New composition patent extends IP to 2030

Depot Phase II on track for Q4 completion

FDA Type C meeting agreed final depot clinical program

Extra Phase III requirements partially offset by no Phase IIb

Commence Phase III H1 '14 Target FDA approval H1 '17

Additional Pipeline Opportunities

Cocaine overdose rescue

Other clinical pipeline opportunities
