

RECKITT ANNOUNCES PATRICK SLY AS PRESIDENT OF HEALTH AND SUSAN SHOLTIS AS PRESIDENT OF NUTRITION

Executive changes follow appointment of Kris Licht as CEO Designate

SLOUGH, United Kingdom (1 June 2023) – Reckitt today announces the appointments of Patrick Sly as President of Health and Susan Sholtis as President of Nutrition. The changes are effective 1 July 2023, and follow the appointment of Kris Licht as CEO Designate.

Pat has led Reckitt's Global Nutrition business since 2021 and, under his leadership, both top- and bottom-line growth have accelerated considerably. Pat has been instrumental in delivering significant improvements in Nutrition's Developing Markets business and ensuring that our key brands are the most trusted by paediatricians and parents. Prior to assuming leadership of the Global Nutrition business, Pat held general management positions across North America, ASEAN, and Latin America and joined Reckitt in 2017 as part of the Mead Johnson Nutrition acquisition.

Pat will be succeeded as President of Nutrition by Susan Sholtis, who will rejoin Reckitt on 1 July 2023. Susan comes to Reckitt with a deep knowledge of the Nutrition business, having previously worked for more than 11 years at Mead Johnson and Reckitt in a number of roles, including in general management and global marketing. Susan brings to the role a strong background in integrating consumer and medical strategies.
